Every year YPP sponsors a breakfast event to update employers on what is new and changing in labor law and this year looks to be a full agenda. Spend a morning with us and learn what is changing and how you can respond within your business.

Meet the Presenter

Mr. Dinkin is a partner in the Labor and Employment Practice Group at Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP at the firm's Santa Barbara office. He represents management in all aspects of Labor and Employment law.

Mr. Dinkin's experience spans both private and public sector labor relations, including more than twenty years of negotiating collective bargaining agreements. He has represented employers from start-up companies developing personnel policies and employee handbooks, to established companies expanding into California. Mr. Dinkin has handled contractual and disciplinary matters in administrative proceedings before arbitrators and governmental agencies, and has litigated labor, employment, and discrimination cases in state and federal courts at both trial and appellate levels.

Mr. Dinkin advocates a proactive approach, counseling employers to evaluate their employment practices to minimize liability exposure. His client-focused counsel is tailored to serve the long term goals of each client.
